

East Road Cemetery

Berlin, Vermont

East Road (it had been called Bible Street) Cemetery was laid out March of 1793. It was voted to give Jonathan Ayer twenty schillings per acre for land for the burying grounds and that the Selectmen apply to Mr. Jonathan Ayer in behalf of the Town and take a deed of the land purchased of him for the burying ground and that the Selectmen be a Committee to superintend the labor to be done on the several burying yards in Town.

The East Road Cemetery was "leased out' 15 rods by 16 rods at a cost of one pound, ten shillings.
